The Willow Run airport sits to the south of the property, and Route 12 lies to the west, with railroad tracks to the north. Industrial property abuts the land on the east side.

The property was cultivated for agricultural use as early as 1940 and until approximately 1966. When the site was operated as a landfill by Van Buren Development Company (prior to GM's ownership), wastes disposed at the site included general refuse, demolition waste, domestic refuse and incinerator ash from the City of Detroit, and paper waste from Ford Motor Company. Liquid wastes inside 55-gallon drums and crankcase oil from Dearborn Refinery also may have been disposed of at the site. Landfilling of wastes ceased in 1969.

In late 2003, a pathway was cleared and a perimeter fence was installed to prevent unauthorized entry and use of the site by all-terrain vehicles, disposal of household and building materials waste, and hunting.

Collateral Information: Access/Linkage

Van Buren Township, in western Wayne County, Michigan, is close to both Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport (www.metroairport.com) and Willow Run Airport (www.willowrunairport.com), and is surrounded by an extensive transportation network that includes a toll-free expressway system, a major port, mass transit, an international crossing and several rail carriers.

Since 1959, the St. Lawrence Seaway has provided a link between the world marketplace and the industrial and agricultural heartland of North America. The 2,000-mile long seaway system is responsible for annual commerce exceeding 200 million net tons. More than 30 million people rely on the Great Lakes/St. Lawrence Seaway system, either recreationally or for commerce.

Interstate 94, a major east-west thoroughfare, bisects Van Buren Township, connecting it to Ann Arbor to the west and Detroit to the east. Major expressways located nearby include I-75, I-96, I-275 and I-696. These roadways link the region with all major Midwestern U.S. cities and Ontario, Canada.

The transportation assets of Southeast Michigan, northern Ohio and Windsor, Ontario, Canada have turned the region into a global logistics hub for moving people, goods and ideas around the world.

The region shares the busiest international trade corridor in the world with Windsor, Canada via the Ambassador Bridge and the Detroit-Windsor Tunnel.

Collateral Information: Airports

Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport (www.metroairport.com) is one of the busiest airports in the U.S. and among the world's largest air transportation hubs.

Detroit is the second-largest hub and primary Asian gateway for Delta, the world's largest airline. The airport also is a major base of operations for ultra-low cost carrier Spirit Airlines. Together with 13 additional passenger airlines — including three foreign flag carriers — Detroit's airlines and their regional partners offer service to more than 150 non-stop destinations around the globe.

Detroit also is one of the newest, most operationally capable and efficient airports in North America, with two new passenger terminals, 145 gates, six jet runways, and two modern Federal Inspection Services facilities for international arrivals.

More than 32 million passengers traveled through the Detroit airport in 2012, including more than 2.8 million international travelers. In addition, more than 218,000 metric tons of cargo are transferred through the airport that year.

Willow Run Airport (www.willowrunairport.com), managed by the Wayne County Airport Authority, is located seven miles west of Detroit Metropolitan Airport. Occupying 2,600 acres, Willow Run serves cargo, corporate and general aviation clients. The airport offers four runways, 24-hour FAA Tower and U.S. Customs operations to provide ease of access for its users.

Willow Run Airport has more than 65,000 operations per year. Approximately 200 million pounds of cargo are transferred through the airport annually, making Willow Run the fourth-largest airport in Michigan.

The airport accommodates small private planes as well as international 747 cargo jets. Cargo, corporate and general aviation users receive the advantages of a large airport and the conveniences of a small one. Along with nearby inter-modal transportation, its prime location gives easy access to major U.S. and international markets and provides ample room for growth.

Collateral Information: Port Facilities

The Port of Detroit (www.portdetroit.com) offers access to the Great Lakes and overseas via the St. Lawrence Seaway. The Port of Detroit, operated by the Detroit/Wayne County Port Authority, moves 750,000 tons of steel annually, supplying the region's automotive industry. The port has long been used to import lumber, copper and automobiles as well. Its location near the Ambassador Bridge and major interstate freeways makes the Port of Detroit accessible and efficient.

The Port of Detroit, located on the Detroit River in southwest Detroit, covers 35 acres, with docks that are approximately 2,150 feet in length and a seaway depth of 27 feet. The facility has 128,000 square feet of covered storage for rolled steel or other products.

The port includes a foreign trade zone that is administered by the Greater Detroit Foreign Trade Zone, Inc. A foreign trade zone provides competitive advantages to companies involved in international trade through deferral, reduction or elimination of U.S. Customs duties. A foreign trade zone is an area within the geographical boundary of the United States that is considered to be outside the Customs territory of the U.S. Companies may bring foreign and domestic merchandise into zones for storage, testing, relabeling, displaying, manufacturing, and for the eventual entry into U.S. commerce or for exportation from the U.S. All Customs duties and federal excise taxes are deferred while merchandise is in a zone and, in many instances, these duties or taxes can be substantially reduced or eliminated through zone use.

Collateral Information: Utilities and Natural Gas

Michigan's robust energy utility infrastructure helps ensure ready access to competitively priced power and water resources.

Electricity is one of the biggest costs of production. Michigan's rate is competitive, with a cost per kilowatt hour of $0.94 compared to the national average of $0.95.

Powered today primarily by coal and nuclear, but increasingly with alternative energy sources, Michigan companies enjoy reliability and price stability because of this mix of fuel sources.

Michigan also was the first state to embrace the concept of electric customer choice through retail wheeling. And, Michigan has a wide network of transmission lines, increasingly important for harnessing Michigan's wind, solar, hydroelectric and other alternative energy generation.

Michigan's natural gas supply is abundant, reliable and economical. The state's unique geology and geography combine to provide some of North America's most abundant and economical natural gas. In fact, Michigan is the nation's 11th-largest gas production state, with 25 percent of natural gas needs supplied from in-state sources.

Detroit Edison and Michigan Consolidate Gas Co. (MichCon) are the largest operating subsidiaries of DTE Energy (www.dteenergy.com), an integrated energy company that provides gas and electric utility services to millions of Michigan homes and businesses, as well as energy-related services to businesses and industries nationwide.

Detroit Edison generates, transmits and distributes electricity to 2.1 million customers in southeastern Michigan. With an 11,084-megawatt system capacity, the company uses coal, nuclear fuel, natural gas, hydroelectric pumped storage and renewable sources to generate its electrical output. Founded in 1903, Detroit Edison is the largest electric utility in Michigan and one of the largest in the nation.

MichCon (<http://mcsts.dteenergy.com/aboutUs.html>) is engaged in the purchase, storage, transmission, distribution and sale of natural gas to approximately 1.3 million customers in Michigan. The company owns and operates 278 storage wells representing approximately 34 percent of the underground working capacity in Michigan. There is more gas storage capacity in Michigan than in any other state. Founded in 1849, MichCon is one of the nation's largest natural gas utilities.

Nearby Detroit gives residents an opportunity to experience professional baseball, football, basketball and hockey. The area also attracts national sporting events such as the USA Track and Field championships and the Dr. Porter Synchronized Skating Classic.

The Detroit Metro region has long been a major center of commerce and global trade, and remains an important auto manufacturing center, with the domestic auto industry primarily headquartered in the area. In the past decade, downtown Detroit has seen an increased role as an entertainment hub with the opening of three casino resort hotels, new sports stadiums and a revitalized riverfront.

The metropolitan area has many nationally prominent live performance venues, including the DTE Energy Music Theatre and The Palace of Auburn Hills. The Detroit Theatre District is the second-largest in the United States and hosts Broadway performances at any of 10 major theaters, including Orchestra Hall, home of the renowned Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Detroit's Greektown and three downtown casino resort hotels (MGM Grand Detroit, MotorCity Casino and Greektown Casino) serve as part of an entertainment hub.

Regional Overview: Workforce

The U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics reported a preliminary unemployment rate of 6.0 percent in the Detroit-Dearborn-Livonia labor market for March 2017, the most recent month for which statistics are available. The state rate was 5.1 percent and the national rate was 4.5 percent.

Western Wayne County and adjacent Washtenaw County have a highly educated, well-trained, diverse and available workforce.

Michigan offers a coordinated job training system using federal, state and local resources to provide a highly productive and trained workforce. Grants can provide funding for activities that increase worker productivity. The training itself is done through the institution of the company's choice. Free recruitment and screening services are available for new and expanding employers through the Michigan Employment Security Administration's job service and also through several local school districts.

The Michigan Economic Development Corp. (www.michiganbusiness.org) administers a $1.2 million Training Incentive Fund, which provides assistance to employers wishing to upgrade the skills of their current workforce. Other programs include Targeted Jobs Tax Credits, and adult and vocational education.

The Detroit Regional Workforce Fund (www.detroitregionalworkforcefund.org) is a regional public/private initiative that supports partnerships among employers and workforce development agencies, effects change in the region's strategic workforce vision, and aligns public and private resources in new ways around workforce development.

The Fund recognizes that Michigan's recovery and long-term prosperity hinges on having a skilled workforce that can meet the needs of employers in a new economy. Projections suggest that by 2018, 62 percent of all jobs in Michigan will require some postsecondary training beyond high school, but only 36 percent of the state's adults have postsecondary degrees.

The Michigan Works! System (www.michiganworks.org) is the first unified workforce development system in the country and is an instrumental partner for developing Michigan's economic future. With a statewide network of more than 100 service centers, the Michigan Works! System serves nearly 4 million customers each year.

Who is RACER and What Do We Do

The RACER Trust was created in March 2011 by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court to clean up and position for redevelopment 89 properties and other facilities owned by the former General Motors Corp. before its 2009 bankruptcy.

Offers for purchase must be evaluated by RACER against six criteria required by a Settlement Agreement that, with the Court's approval, created the Trust. You may view the Settlement Agreement at www.racertrust.org/About\_RACER/Settlement\_Agreement. While purchase price is a factor, RACER also must consider each proposal's ability to create jobs and generate new economic opportunity in the communities hurt by the GM bankruptcy. RACER will require prospective buyers to furnish detailed information to demonstrate that its offer satisfies each of the six criteria described in the Settlement Agreement.

Transaction Guidelines/Bid Instructions

Prospective buyers interested in bidding on the Property described herein must first execute a Confidentiality Agreement, schedule a Property inspection through RACER's Redevelopment office and then submit a Letter of Intent form. A Confidentiality Agreement and Letter of Intent form are available for download at RACER's website: www.racertrust.org.

RACER will evaluate all Letters of Intent for the Property against six criteria (the "Sales Criteria") required by the Settlement Agreement that established the Trust. These Sales Criteria are described in detail on RACER's website and generally include:

- i. whether the monetary value of the purchase price is sufficient in light of the projected budget for the sale of the Property, taking into account any surplus from past Properties sold or projected shortfall on the sale of the remaining Properties;
- ii. the potential for the proposed reuse to create jobs in the State and the affected community;
- iii. other benefits to the State and affected communities (such as increasing tax revenue, reducing blight, and providing a sense of renewal);
- iv. avoiding a material increase in the cost of or interference with the Environmental Action;
- v. the views of the State and affected communities; and
- vi. the reputation and credibility of the prospective buyer.

The Letter of Intent will not constitute a binding offer by prospective buyers to purchase the Property for the price submitted. Letters of Intent must include a detailed proposal for the redevelopment of the Property and a detailed explanation with supporting information for how the proposal would satisfy all of the Settlement Agreement Sales Criteria.

RACER will evaluate the Letters of Intent received for the Property and may, in its sole discretion, select one or more for further due diligence and may request submission of final proposals for sale. If RACER approves a Letter of Intent, RACER is not obligated to sell the Property. RACER reserves the right to accept or reject any or all proposals, regardless of purchase price, or to withdraw the assets from the sale, in its sole discretion, for any or no reason. Approval or consent by any community or stakeholder is not needed for RACER to move forward with a particular project.

Prospective purchasers may be asked to participate in the negotiation of a Purchase and Sale Agreement, which will be available for download on RACER's website. Purchase and Sale Agreements for the Property will be evaluated against the Settlement Agreement Sales Criteria generally described above and more fully described on RACER's website.

Each transaction involving Trust property will have unique circumstances, which may require RACER to consider additional factors, and balance their relative merits and weight differently, after analyzing the requisite due diligence, including a careful review of objective information, consultations with community officials and local community investment in the subject project, with due consideration given to any intangible benefits of the offer. The Trust will strive to balance all of these factors, with the ultimate goal of achieving the optimum outcome for stakeholders in every case, but the Trust retains the ultimate discretion on how best to weight these factors and which offer or project, if any, best satisfies the Sales Criteria and the Trust's other requirements.

As Purchase and Sales Agreements are evaluated, RACER also will encourage local community officials to execute a development agreement with prospective buyers describing, among other things, the level of investment, schedule for the project and specific job creation goals.

The Property will be sold for cash, due at closing, based upon the terms and provisions described in the Purchase and Sales Agreement. RACER will not pay a seller's commission to brokers, unless approved in advance by RACER in writing.

File Review:

Prospective buyers are encouraged to review the information contained in this Brochure and on RACER's website prior to submission of a Letter of Intent.
